

AUGUST EVENTS

February 15, 2021

To whom it may concern,

Emily Maranto has worked with us as a seasonal intern since January of 2020. She is a marketing specialist who also assists with many other areas of our day-to-day and event production operations.

As a marketing specialist, Emily has been instrumental in developing how we manage our marketing communications and social media across all platforms - including Instagram, Facebook, Pinterest, blogs and Twitter. She's helped us to reach a broader audience and to engage with potential clients in a way that we just weren't before. She's been very helpful with SEOs, creating and organizing new content, scheduling posts, and recommending more efficient ways to operate.

Emily also assists with all things related to event production. She's a self starter who helps us with everything from graphic design for event signage to mockups for design clients. She acts as a production assistant on site. It is a high stress environment, but we can always count on Emily to have great natural instincts and a positive attitude. She takes direction easily and is always a pleasure to work with.

I recommend Emily for any position that will draw upon her skills and her proven record of contribution to marketing and events. Feel free to reach out if you need additional information. I'd be happy to tell you more about my experience employing Emily at August Events.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Pilgrim
